Effective July 1, 2014, UGA "temporary" faculty will be referred to as "limited-term" faculty. In addition, the maximum time served in a limited-term position is now two years consistent with a recent change in BOR policy. Corresponding UGA policies and faculty job class/rank codes and titles have been updated to reflect this change in terminology. Please note that the historical record for temporary faculty will also reflect the title "limited-term" for appointments prior to July 1, 2014.

UGA Academic Affairs Policy 1.04-4 Limited-Term: Limited-term faculty do not serve under annual contract but are employed and budgeted at 100% time for their period of employment. Limited-term faculty may be renewed annually for a maximum of two (2) years. Any request for reappointment of limited-term faculty beyond the second year requires strong justification and pre-approval by the Provost and Equal Opportunity Office. (Note: Prior to July 1, 2014, "limited-term" faculty were referred to as "temporary" faculty).
